Volunteer of the Year

Recently, the Iron Mountain Kingsford Community Federal Credit Union named their Volunteer of the Year. Employees at IMKCFCU believe in the credit union philosophy of “people helping people”. The various organizations employees have volunteered time include Pies for Parkinson’s, Dr. Fornetti’s Dentistry From the Heart, Masons Hunter’s Dinner, Almost Home Animal Shelter, Florence Fair, Relay for Life, Bras for a Cause, Barn Cat Buddies, Aurora Mudd Run, Art for All, Kingsford Wrestling, Fallen Patriots Foundation, Knitted Knockers, Zombie Run, Caring House, Dickinson County Children’s Theater, Chamber of Commerce’s The Ritz, 100+ Women Who Care, Edwards Automotive Cancer Walk, ItalianFest, OktoberFest, CU Kids Christmas Tree, Precious Petals, Cute Cones, DCH Halloween Trunk or Treat and Downtown Christmas Walk.

IMKCFCU employees logged 1388.15 volunteer hours in 2015. This is an increase of 381 hours over last year. These employees embody the spirit of giving back to their community. IMKCFCU’s 2015 Volunteer of the Year is Lydia Krivanek. She has logged over 700 hours alone volunteering for various community activities. Lydia is very active with the Florence Fair and also recently won the Hall of Fame award for District 1 Wisconsin Association of Fairs—an impressive year.

IMKCFCU’s 2015 Volunteer of the Year is Lydia Krivanek. IMKCFCU does it best!

Mental Illness Support Group

The National Alliance on Mental Illness-Alger/Marquette Chapter offers confidential support groups and educational meetings for individuals living with mental illness, and friends or families living with an individual with mental illness.

A support group will gather Monday, February 8 at 7:00pm in the Hiawatha Room of the Commons Conference Center, 129 West Baraga Avenue, Marquette. For more information call 906-360-7107, or www.namiam.org. In case of bad weather, if NMU cancels evening classes, the NAMI meeting will also be cancelled.

Upcoming Blood Drives

The U.P. Regional Blood Center a service of U.P. Health System is experiencing a critical blood need for O-positive, A-negative, O-negative and B-positive blood types in a number of areas.

With the tragedies of well known public figures dealing with depression, we feel now more than ever the timing of this class is so important for families to learn more about the types of mental illnesses.

Please call to register for the classes by February 13th, however, we will accept new class members until March 1, 2015. For further information or to register please call Louise Wilcox (906-235-0231), Cindy K. Bertucci (906-360-7107) or Niki Richardson (906-458-1547).

Farewell to Downton Abbey at the Dickinson County Library

Say goodbye to the beloved series with this fun program on Thursday, February 11, 2:00 PM at the Dickinson County Library. We’ll be sending off Downton Abbey in style by discussing the characters, playing some Downton trivia games, and toasting the series with lemonade and cookies. Don’t miss out on this simple, elegant and tasteful program that would fit in at Downton’s storied halls.
